CACCIA DEL LIBRO- A BOOK HUNT COMPETITION

It was an evening of excitement and frenzy as the signature BOOK HUNT event of the BookSleuths club returned as CACCIA DEL LIBRO- a BOOK HUNT competition to capture the zeal of the teams in hunting the solution, Italian style of course. The event began from 6 on the evening of 4th September, 2018 as teams crowded near the reception desk of the library, bursting with energy to begin the event.

The rules of the game was quickly but clearly explained by our club members and it began. Each team picked at random from a stationery holder, a clue in the form of a puzzle pictorial or otherwise, that leads to the first book. From there the team will retrieve the next clue that will lead to the next book and so on. There were 4 clues per set that led to 5 books. In total 16 sets of puzzles/questions were made. The teams participated in a First Come First Serve style as in, the first few team i.e. numbering 4 or 5 came in to participate immediately started with 20 minutes as the maximum time allocated. We were a bit worried that the teams which were waiting for their turn might get annoyed or bored but thanks to our focussed and charming club members, (its true!!!) it didn't came to be. The team with lowest time clocked in finding all the books won the event. Around 15 teams participated in the competition.

The event was officially over around 8 PM, and the energy levels were high, w.r.t. the club members handling the event as well as the last teams which were playing at that time. The goal was to showcase the different kinds of books present in our library, the various book sections other than the academic shelves, and inculcating a habit of reading books.

The winners and runners-up will be rewarded with utilitarian prizes i.e. a set of 3 books, mugs, etc. soon.

Winner- Team Bookworm (Sudarshan VR, Vikram Sen, Rutwik Shah)

Despite the shortage of several club members, and the event being postponed a couple of times, the BookSleuths managed to make it a successful event from the positive reception of the participants, and the involved atmosphere of everyone when the event was being conducted. Our mission is to catalyse the joys of reading in every Symbian's mind and we will come up with more entertaining happenings to achieve our mission and lastly...

A special thanks to Pratibimb for covering the entire event with patience.
