HELIOS

Introduction

As part of the "HELIOS" event, the BOOKSLEUTHS –the LRC Committee conducted the "HELIOS" and various games were part of the event.

Game Plan

The game is composed of a Bookhunt, crosswords, Sentence Completion and logo identification. The entire game is of 10 steps of clues with some leading directly to the books, while other steps must be solved with crosswords, sentence corrections and logo identifications in a random manner and not always have all sub-games. The teams may be of either 2 or 3 members. Each team has to select a random slip of either a clue towards a book by its title or a sub-game. The main game will be a Bookhunt with 3 sub-games.

Event

The event began at 12.00 pm with teams giving preference to start working on a first come first basis. Each team had to select a slip from a stationary box. The teams began to work out the clues in each slip with the entire to be covered less than 30 minutes.

Mode of selection of the victors

It had two parameters which decided for each of the participant.

- The time taken by each team. The shortest time taken is considered.
- The number of correct answers given in each sub-game by each team.

Winning teams

We congratulate every participating team for gracing our event with their full of heart participation. However there must be winners in this. They are

- Winners- Deepak Gulve, Naveen Jalan, Welingkar School, Mumbai
- Runners up- Sriharsha, Shrinidhi, Shashank, SIBM, Hyderabad
