Partners:-

When we think about fests we think about style and glamour and when it's about style and glamour it's about going for the best. In this case, who better than ENVI, who was Elysium's style and fashion partner. The wellness of the event, it's organizers and participants are another major priority for the event, which for this year was handled by VLCC who was the wellness partner. To make sure the guests and participants of this event had a safe and comfortable ride to our campus, Uber joined hands with Elysium as its travel partner. To ensure all the gifts and rewards were distributed in a decorated manner, The Souled Store, joined the party as the gifting partner. Additionally, to assure that this grand 2-day fest made headlines, Elysium had Youth Inc. as its media partner. Power is well defined by Royal Enfield. They had provided trial rides to the students on their bikes whose thrust and the RPM took the riding experience to the next level.

Elysium, is about celebration, and when we talk about celebrating it's all about food. To make sure that all everyone enjoyed a feast a huge team was ready with all the delicacies of various cuisines and drinks.
