Day 1 (8th January 2019)

THE BEST ATTRACT THE BEST!

The entire SIBM-H campus was abuzz with activities, decoration and preparation for the annual Management and Cultural Extravaganza – Firande 2019. Close to 200 students from 25+ top colleges across India had come down to SIBM-H for Firande 2019. All the efforts and plans made from almost four months back were leading up to the Day 1 of Firande. The week before had all clubs giving finishing touches to their events, decoration and the incoming participants and guests were being accommodated in the spacious living quarters on campus.

On the big day, students assembled in the sprawling auditorium which gave the event a larger than life feel. In true Symbiosis tradition of inclusion and cooperation, students of the Symbiosis Law School were also a substantial part of the in house contingent.

The opening ceremony at the auditorium started off at sharp 8:30 am as planned with the arrival of – Mr. Shivendra Agarwal (Guest of Honour for Inaugural Ceremony), Dr. K P Venugopala Rao (Dy. Director SIBM-H) and Mr. Raghavendra B.T. (Faculty In-charge for Student Activity at SIBM-H).

Dr. K.P Venugopala Rao, Mr. Shivendra Agarwal and Mr. Raghavendra B.T. kick off Firande 2k19

Mr. Raghavendra B.T. gave the welcome address to all the guests and participants while sharing the importance of a student run community in the college and how SIBM-H does things differently while empowering student and making the leaders of tomorrow. This address was followed by Mr. Shivendra Agarwal who captured the attention of the audience with anecdotes from their professional and personal lives, thereby giving the students an opportunity to interact with industry leaders and thinkers and trying to assimilate the mantra of success in the modern, fast changing world. The Student Council President, Ms. Surbhi Bansal, delivered an address on behalf of the student council.

Dr. K P Venugopala Rao then gave the note of thanks to all the dignitaries, guests and students present, thanking everyone for their enthusiasm and spirit.

The judges faced a challenging task in short listing the final candidates for the events; to have the grand finale on Day 2. The variety of events was astounding with 17 events from academic and non-academic clubs. Events included cHakRavyuha (HR event), FinTango (Finance event), Opsera (Operations event), Agamya (club Samarthya), Marketeneur (Marketing event), Odyssey (club Inkquisitive), Gourmet battle (MessComm), Udyokta (E-cell event)s among many others!

The Day 1 ended on a rousing note with dramatics and singing performances by the visiting teams including the in-house Antardhwani (cultural club). Post this students and participants enjoyed the performances of singers brought on for adding a lyrical and melodious touch to the action packed Day 1 of Firande 2019!

Day 2 (9th January 2019)

The final day of Firande 2019 started off with a bang as all participants and events were on a final lap and fantastic cash prizes were up for grabs. The excitement in the air was unmistakable! One could clearly see the passion and dedication of the participants as they used all their knowledge and wits to come out on top. The day had final rounds for all the club events which culminated in a grand final at 5.30 PM.

A specially constructed stage, was the place for the valedictory function to take place.

Felicitating one of the winning teams

After a hard fought day of exciting and engaging events, the stage was set for the winners to be recognized and celebrated.

The gathering was addressed by the Dr. K.P. Venugopala Rao, thanking the students and participants for a fantastic show. The head of Student Affairs, SIBM-H, Mr. Raghavendra B.T. finally thanked the guests, faculty, participants and finally the council and student volunteers for their efforts and boundless energies for making Firande 2019 a stupendous success and an occasion that will stand the test of time in terms of memories for all those involved.

The night concluded with sublime performances from fashion teams and stirring dance performances from participants which kept the audiences in a continuous state of applause!

Dr. Geoffrey Clements, felicitating the judges for Vibe- The Dance Competition

We hope that Firande 2k20 next year takes things to an even higher altitude and leverages the dynamic brand and culture of Symbiosis Institute of Business Management – Hyderabad!
